Plantation Manor Administrator Honored by LNHA

Award Recipients Honored for Excellence, Dedication and Service to Louisiana's Nursing Facility Residents

November 13, 2025 - The Louisiana Nursing Home Association recently honored several outstanding individuals during its annual LNHA Convention and Trade Show in New Orleans – and receiving the award for 2025 Administrator of the Year was Plantation Manor's Administrator Keith Ferrington.

"This year's honorees represent the very best of our profession — individuals who go above and beyond every day in ways that truly inspire," said Mark Berger, executive director of LNHA. "Their dedication, compassion and excellence reflect the spirit of the nursing facility profession and the values that define our mission."

The annual awards recognize exceptional individuals for their dedication to providing high-quality care while fostering meaningful connections with their residents.

"The true measure of quality care is reflected in how we treat those we serve," said LNHA Board President Teddy Price. "This year's recipients demonstrate an unwavering commitment to continuous improvement and a heartfelt devotion to caring for each resident as if they were family."

Plantation Manor Nursing & Rehabilitation Center is located in a quiet residential area of Winnsboro set back on Macon Ridge overlooking beautifully landscaped grounds for our residents' safety and peace of mind. The warm and friendly atmosphere at Plantation Manor reflects the long tradition of quality care that was begun long ago when Mrs. Ollie Riley brought two elderly people who had no place to go into her home for nursing care ... a tradition based upon our belief that what counts most in a nursing facility is resident care.
